

Georgia State University Policy

3.00.04 Hardship Withdrawal

Policy Summary

Students may be granted hardship withdrawals when non-academic emergency situations occur which prevent them from completing their course work (e.g., severe medical problems, traumatic events/circumstances that cause them to miss numerous classes).

Full Policy Text

For information on this policy, please see: http://deanofstudents.gsu.edu/student-assistance/emergency-withdrawal/

Administration of Policy

Mandating Authority:
University Senate

Responsible Office(s):
Dean of Students, Suite 300 Student Center, 3-1515
Senate Committee on Admissions and Standards

Responsible Executive(s):

Policy History

Approving Body: Senate

Additional Information

Passed by University Senate December 7, 2006

Additional Helpful Resources