Georgia State University Policy

3.00.03 Disruptive Student Behavior

Policy Summary

The instructor shall make reasonable effort to address disruptive behavior with the student in private. If the instructor needs to withdraw the student from the course, specific procedures must be followed.

Full Policy Text

For information on this policy, please see: codeofconduct.gsu.edu or www.usg.edu/policymanual

Administration of Policy

Mandating Authority:
University Senate

Responsible Office(s):
Senate Committee on Faculty Affairs
Dean of Students, Suite 300 Student Center, 3-1515

Responsible Executive(s):

Policy History

Approving Body: Senate

Additional Information

University Senate April 20, 2006

Additional Helpful Resources